

THE PHILADELPHIA CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF TEACHERS
OF FRENCH ANNOUNCES ITS WINTER CONFERENCE

Dr. Michael Kline of Dickinson College, whose extraordinary 2008 presentation on "The Architecture of Disaster: Social Fracture in France" was so well received by attendees last winter, will return to our area to discuss

IMMIGRATION AND INTEGRATION IN FRANCE

JANUARY 24, 2009

9:00 AM TO 12:00 P.M.

Room 18 Loyola Hall

IMMACULATA UNIVERSITY

In recent years, many trends in France have pointed to an emerging multicultural society, but the tradition of universalism and "Frenchness" remains strong. This presentation suggests how French republican tradition, intolerant of identity politics, may evolve in the 21st century as it confronts a growing, vocal minority culture. Values, infrastructure, social policy, and current attitudes will be addressed. Participants will consider how to integrate the material into their own teaching. The talk will be presented in French.

To receive a useful Powerpoint on CD, please pre-register by January 10 by contacting Emily Wagner at Emily.Wagner@germantownacademy.org.

This presentation may be of interest to others (e.g. history and sociology teachers) as well, and they are most welcome to attend. While this conference is free to members of the Philadelphia AATF Chapter, we ask that non-members contribute $10.00 to attend.

(snow date January 31; if the weather is inclement, please e-mail Emily.Wagner@germantownacademy.org)
